We have been uploading solutions and testbanks but the product you are looking for may not have been uploaded yet. We would like to show you a description here but the site won't allow us. A land/location value tax (LVT), also called a site valuation tax, split rate tax, or site-value rating, is an ad valorem levy on the unimproved value of land. Unlike property taxes, it disregards the value of buildings, personal property and other improvements to real estate. A land value tax is generally favored by economists as (unlike other taxes) it does not cause economic inefficiency ...
